

END IS APPROACHING

THE LIFE OF POPE LEO IS DRAWING SLOWLY BUT SURELY TO ITS CLOSE.

CONDITION ABOUT AS USUAL

BUT THE STRENGTH OF THE AUGUST PATIENT STEADILY DIMINISHES.

PHYSICIANS ARE PERPLEXED

DR. LOPPONI FRANKLY SAYS HE CANNOT SEE HOW PONTIFF KEEPS ALIVE.

Rome, July 15.—9:50 a. m.—When Dr. Mazzoni entered the pope's sick room this morning he found his holiness in almost the same condition as last night. Pope Leo said: "I feel better than I did yesterday morning."

On leaving the vatican, Dr. Mazzoni, in reply to the query, "Is the end imminent?" answered: "It cannot be called so."

"Then is it near?" was asked, and Dr. Mazzoni replied: "In order not to make a mistake, let us say it is not far distant."

Rome, July 15.—9 a. m.—The following medical bulletin has just been issued: "During the night the pope had several hours' rest. His pulsation is 82; respiration 30; temperature 36.2 centigrade. There has been no noticeable change in the general condition of the august patient."

Rome, July 15.—1:20 a. m.—Another remarkable rally in Pope Leo's condition occurred yesterday afternoon after a morning in the course of which his holiness suffered spells of delirium and at times his strength sank to the lowest ebb, and now tonight he lies in no worse condition than he was on Monday evening, except for the steady diminution of his strength. Monsignor Bissetti, master of the chamber, visited the sick room just after midnight and on emerging stated that the pontiff's condition was unchanged. A little later the pope fell into a sleep which it has just been announced is fairly tranquil, although the patient's respiration is troublesome.

Yesterday's rally was characteristically opposed to every medical theory and consisted in getting out of bed, on which two hours previously the pope himself had Made All Preparations for Death. Unsatisfied with this exhibition of vitality, he transacted private business and received four cardinals, with whom he talked in an animated way. In fact, Pope Leo's record for yesterday, little of which appeared in last night's official bulletin, would be incredible if it were not confirmed by the doctors and cardinals present in the sick chamber. None seem more perplexed than the doctors themselves. Dr. Laponi said frankly: "I cannot imagine how the pope manages to keep alive." According to the physicians, the pontiff may die at any moment, even in the midst of one of those extraordinary intervals when his mind and body present a comparatively sound appearance.

All those around the patient have long since ceased to hold definite opinions regarding the duration of the pontiff's existence. The slow but progressive diminution of the strength of the august patient fortifies the approaching

End of the Struggle With Death, but the doctors will not venture to predict how near the end is. Constant relapses, they say, such as created alarm early yesterday, are gradually wearing down the pope's constitution, which seems immune from any specific disease. Most persons are inclined to the idea that Pope Leo may get through perhaps two or three repetitions of yesterday's ups and downs, till, as Dr. Rossini puts it, "his pulse stops forever."

Three causes may accelerate the end, viz: Continued inability to take nourishment, which was exhibited today, sudden heart failure or the progression of pleuritis diseases.

The latter is thought the least probable. As day succeeds day it becomes pathologically clearer that it is a case of a very old man dying because he has lived his allotted time.

The pope himself yesterday afternoon ordered the four cardinals to be admitted and received them standing. He, who is supposed to be

At the Point of Death, saying: "Please be seated." He recounted the impressive ceremony of the morning when he received the benediction of the Franciscan order. The cardinals informed him of the world-wide prayers for his life. Pope Leo answered that he was much gratified, but that he was ready for his final departure, concluding, he says: "God's will be done."

Even more striking was the pope's interview with his secretary, Mgr. Angeli. His holiness sent for him, saying that he wished to see certain papers, which the secretary brought. Then, after a short explanation, Mgr. Angeli wished to get the pope's decision on the matter, but pope Leo said: "Well, well, not today. We will do that some other time."

A curious controversy is proceeding between the vatican medical board, composed of ten doctors of less importance than Dr. Laponi, and several foreign physicians, regarding the embalming of Pope Leo's body. Several foreigners having offered processes of embalming, each more wonderful than the other, the papal doctors unearthed pontifical bulls giving the right to embalm the pope solely to the vatican medical body.

FOILS ENRAGED FARMERS.

Deputy Sheriff Prevents Angry Mob From Lynching a Negro.

Albany, N. Y., July 15.—The quick wit of a deputy sheriff at Cossack Tuesday afternoon prevented the lynching of James Little, a nineteen-year-old negro hailing from Summerhurst, N. J., who early Tuesday morning near New Baltimore criminally assaulted Emma Cole, aged eleven years, daughter of Joseph Cole, a farmer living one mile back of New Baltimore. The negro escaped after threatening the child with death. Two other children had given the alarm, and Mr. Cole and neighbors met the child coming home, and at once organized a party to scour the woods.

A description of the negro was sent to nearby towns and an hour later he was captured on the railroad track near Cossack by Roy Cutler. He confessed the assault and was locked up.

In the meanwhile news of the capture reached New Baltimore and a mob of 150 enraged farmers started for Cossack, augmented by a large number of striking Cossack moulder and river men, all frankly vowing their intention to lynch the negro.

Deputy Sheriff Sumner Van Loon, realizing that the coming of darkness would mean the breaking of the flimsy local lock-up and the violent death of his prisoner, smuggled the negro out and took him down the river on the boat to Catskill, where there is a well-built jail.

The Cole child is seriously injured, but may recover. Her father and the neighboring farmers are in a terrible state of excitement and but for the deputy's quick action would certainly have lynched the negro.

The negro, Little, says he has been living in Albany until yesterday, when he started to walk to his home in New Jersey. His confession fully corroborates the story told by the child.

CRISIS IN THE FAR EAST.

War May Result From Russian Chinese Intrigues.

Victoria, B. C., July 15.—According to advices received by the steamer Empress of India today, the crisis in the far East is close to a breaking point, and even the most conservative journals fear that war will result as a result of Russian Chinese intrigues. Many newspapers are urging an appeal to arms.

The Peking correspondent of the Mainichi says M. Lessar's reference to Russian preparedness is taken to mean that troops are now at the Yalu and that the force along the coast of the Yellow Sea is of sufficient strength. The Russian minister to Peking also states that he has received advices from Admiral Alexieff that all defensive measures, in view of a possible Japanese invasion, have been completed along the coast of the Yellow Sea and the Korean frontier.

The United States fleet is still at Che Foo and the Japanese squadron is cruising in Northern waters. A dispatch from Manampo, Korea, says that five Russian battleships and seven torpedo boats are lying there.

CONGRER TO INVESTIGATE.

United States Minister Will Look Into Manchurian Situation.

Peking, July 15.—United States Minister Conger arrived at New Chwang Tuesday, where he will make a personal investigation of the situation.

M. Lessar, the Russian minister to China, will return here soon. The Russian legation is without information regarding the result of the conference of high Russian officials at Port Arthur.

Dispatches from Japan on the situation are optimistic, but on account of the continued reports of Russian activity on the Yalu river and also the statement made by the Korean legation here that Russia will not consent and the Koreans themselves are unable to open Attami to trade because of Russian objections. The opinion here is gloomy. Unless the evacuation of Manchuria occurs soon the belief obtains here that the acts of beligerent Russians on the Yalu will precipitate a conflict, as it is understood that Japan will regard the continuation of Russian encroachment on the territory bordering the Yalu as a casus belli.

Molineaux Will Appeal.

Albany, N. Y., July 15.—Attorney General Cunneen has been served with notice of appeal by Roland B. Molineaux from the decision of Justice Howard denying him a mandamus to compel the return to him, by the state prison department of photographs, Bertillon measurements and other personal records.

Fine Summer Home Destroyed.

New London, Conn., July 15.—Rock Lawn, one of the finest summer homes in this part of the country, the residence of Mrs. Lindley Hoffman Chapin, was struck by lightning last night and totally destroyed. The loss is estimated at $100,000.

UNDER INVESTIGATION

POSTOFFICE INSPECTORS PROBING CHARGES MADE AGAINST JOHN M. MASTEN.

EMPLOYEE FILES AFFIDAVIT

ALLEGES THAT HE WAS ASKED TO PAY FOR REINSTATEMENT IN OLD POSITION.

Washington, July 15.—The postoffice inspectors are investigating charges made against John M. Masten, now assistant superintendent of the railway mail service and formerly chief clerk of the first assistant postmaster general's office. A man named Terry, now in the government service, has made an affidavit before the inspectors alleging that Masten, while chief clerk to the first assistant postmaster general, proposed that Terry pay him $50 down and $8 or $10 a month to secure reinstatement in a former position in Masten's bureau. Terry charges that he was originally a $600 employee in the dead letter office, that he was removed under an order of Masten and put into the city postoffice, that he protested and finally that Masten suggested his getting an outside party, a close friend of Masten and a former employee of the postal service, to help him. The affidavit alleges that Masten gave Terry assurance that if he paid the amount mentioned he could get back, that he went to Masten's house about the matter, but

Did Not Pay the Money.

Terry charges that subsequently he made an affidavit, making these charges and handed it to Masten to present to First Assistant Postmaster General Johnson and that the affidavit did not reach Johnson. According to the charges, Masten subsequently was asked by Terry for the affidavit and refused to return it and Terry thereupon placed the information before the civil service commission, who took up the matter with the president.

The federal grand jury in this city is considering several important postoffice cases which are expected to prove of widespread interest. Postmaster General Payne said this afternoon that he expected there would be some important news during his absence on his trip along the coast and he expected that the grand jury would furnish some interesting developments. There is no definite information available as to the identity of the cases, but the jury has been working on them for some time.

An agreement has been reached between the postoffice department and the civil service commission regarding the transfer of employees from other departments to the postoffice department.

Discloses Irregular Transfers.

The new regulations provide that in such transfers it must be shown that the person to be transferred will be employed on work similar to that previously performed by him and has qualifications which will enable him to perform such work better than a person selected from the eligible register of the commission. The pending investigation has disclosed a number of irregular transfers.

The resignation of George A. C. Christian, who was given a leave of absence as law clerk of the department shortly after the sensational rifling of the assistant attorney general's safe by Mrs. Tyner, has been under investigation at the department, but there will be no further action before Postmaster General Payne's return to the city.

Mr. Payne will leave here today and will be aboard the revenue cutter while it makes its regular cruise, which will extend as far as Boston and possibly up to the Maine coast. He expects to be away most of August.

TORNADO IN NEBRASKA.

One Person Killed and Three Others Injured.

Coscad, Neb., July 15.—A tornado passed eight miles north of here Tuesday afternoon, killing one person and injuring three others.

Samuel Henry, a farmhand, was killed, and two children of Mr. and Mrs. Griffiths, and Miss Anderson, a nurse, were injured.

The dead and injured were in the residence of Griffiths, which was completely destroyed.

The storm passed from northwest to southeast for a distance of ten miles, devastating a strip of country three miles wide and destroying almost every house and barn in its course. The loss is estimated at $100,000. The growing crops were completely destroyed in the area over which the tornado passed.

TEXTILE STRIKE CONTINUES.

Each Side Emphasizes Its Determination Not to Give In.

OFFICIAL VISIT ENDS. American Officers and Men Enthusiastically Received in England.

Portsmouth, Eng., July 15.—With the reception given on board Rear Admiral Cotton's flagship Kearsarge Tuesday afternoon the official visit of the American squadron to England terminated. The royal yacht Victoria and Albert will leave Portsmouth harbor today and receive the salutes of the warships as she steams out. On Friday, when outside Spithead, Admiral Cotton will transfer his flag to the Chicago and proceed with the San Francisco and Maclachlan to Lisbon, while the Kearsarge will begin her speed trial across the Atlantic.

"Our reception in England has been most cordial and enthusiastic," said Rear Admiral Cotton. "Nothing could exceed the courtesy extended to us on all sides, from the king and Prince of Wales, the officials of the government and officers of the army and navy, to the people of London and Portsmouth. I have no doubt that the result of the visit of the American squadron will prove beneficial in the extreme and that it will tend to strengthen the cordial relations which have long existed between the two countries."

Admiral Cotton and the other American officers gave Captain Hemphill all the honors for the part played by the Kearsarge, whose presence contributed in such a remarkable degree to the success of the visit. "We have been killed with kindness," said Captain Hemphill.

TEAMSTERS REFUSE TO STRIKE.

So Chicago Freight Handlers Decide to Return to Work.

Chicago, July 15.—Freight handlers at all the railway warehouses in the city will be ordered today by President T. J. Curran to handle all the freight that is presented at their station, no matter where it comes from. Twenty-two men discharged by the Chicago Terminal Transfer Railroad company for refusing to handle freight from the Kellogg Switchboard and Supply company Saturday will return to the Western avenue freight house and apply for their positions with the understanding that they will handle all kinds of freight.

The action of President Curran and the executive board followed the meeting of the teamsters' joint council last night. President Curran was informed by the council that the teamsters would not join in a sympathetic strike.

IOWA COAL OPERATORS MEET.

Formulate a Series of Charges Against Their Miners.

Des Moines, Ia., July 15.—Sixty Iowa coal operators met in secret session here Tuesday and formulated a series of charges against local unions of the United Mine Workers which will be submitted to the state executive board of that organization for action. If the executive board does not take action, it is intimated the operators will consider their contract with the mine workers at an end. The agreement provides that grievances of miners shall be submitted to an arbitration board and that pending a decision by the board the miners shall remain at work. The operators claim that in violation of this contract there have been numerous small strikes and stoppages of work which have proven costly to the operators involved.

CAUSES SATISFACTION.

Crimes Act Revoked in Certain Sections of Ireland.

Dublin, July 15.—A proclamation was published Tuesday in the Dublin Gazette, revoking the summary jurisdiction powers of the magistrates in those districts of Ireland which still remain under the crimes act.

The revoking of the crimes act, coming on the eve of King Edward's visit to Ireland, gives great satisfaction. Both here and in Belfast elaborate preparations are being made to decorate and illuminate the cities. The king is certain to have a most enthusiastic welcome and general regret is expressed that the question of presenting an address to his majesty should have been forced to a division in the Dublin corporation, which, in spite of the decision arrived at, is giving the citizens every facility for the decoration of the streets.

THIRTEEN GIRLS BADLY HURT.

Slid Down Imitation Cascade Faster Than Usual.

Paris, July 15.—A serious accident occurred last night at the Folies Marigny theater, in the Champs Elysees. In the final scene of the piece being given at the theater there is an imitation of a cascade, down which apparently glide a number of girls, who are really attached by the waist to a moving sheet. Last night the cord broke and the sheet came down to the stage with a rush. Thirteen of the girls were badly hurt and eight were taken to the hospital.

Blown Into Fragments.

New York, July 15.—Donati Vanetti, watchman for a Williams bridge contractor, was blown into fragments by an explosion of dynamite last night. He was collecting tools and threw them into a big box supposed to contain dynamite.

Show a Large Surplus.

New York, July 15.—The Northern Securities roads show a combined surplus for the year ending June 30 of over $41,000,000, or 10 per cent on the Northern Securities stock.

HOLD A CONFERENCE

CHIEF EXECUTIVE AND PROMINENT JEWS DISCUSS PETITION TO THE CZAR.

MAY NOT BE NECESSARY

ACTION OF RUSSIAN GOVERNMENT MAY END USEFULNESS OF MEMORIAL.

Oyster Bay, L. I., July 15.—An important conference was held at Sagamore Hill during the day between the president and representative Jewish citizens from the Society of B'Nai B'Rith regarding the petition to the Russian government on the Kishineff outrages. Besides the president the parties to the conference were Simon S. Wolf of Washington, Oscar S. Straus and Leon Levi of New York.

The administration has been embarrassed by the delay of the representatives of the B'Nai B'Rith society in presenting the petition. A draft of the document was handed to President Roosevelt weeks ago by Mr. Wolf, but it was decided after some consideration to modify the text of the petition before presenting it formally to the government for transmittal to Russia. Time was desired, too, to obtain to the petition the signatures of representative citizens of the United States of all religious faiths. As a result the document was not placed in the hands of the president until now. The result of the conference at Sagamore Hill has not been disclosed yet, but a strong intimation is given that to the Russian government. The desire of both the president and Secretary Hay is that the Kishineff incident should be closed as soon as possible, as further delay in its consideration might prove embarrassing to this government in other diplomatic negotiations with Russia. Inasmuch as the Russian government has indicated by the adoption of severe measures a genuine disposition to punish adequately the perpetrators of the Kishineff murders and in addition those who instigated them it is a problem for the president and Secretary Hay to solve whether representations concerning the incident now are either desirable or necessary.

It is suggested that the whole matter may be resolved into a brief statement through diplomatic channels to the Russian foreign office that such a petition is in the hands of the United States, thus leaving it to Russia to say whether it would or would not receive the document if it were presented. It would close the incident without subjecting United States relations with Russia to a strain and it is regarded, would be quite as effective as the actual presentation of the petition.

Conference Was Satisfactory.

Messrs. Wolf, Levi and Straus concluded their conference with the president and left for New York in the afternoon. Prior to their departure they announced that, while their conference had been eminently satisfactory, they were not in a position at this time to discuss the result of the interview. The petition in its modified form was presented to the president, but it is understood that signatures to it are yet being added and probably will continue to be added for several days. While many citizens of Jewish faith have signed the petition, a majority of the signatures are those of persons of other religious beliefs. It is learned that a statement soon will be made by the state department in Washington which will disclose the steps taken and to be taken by this government, but there are reasons why publicity at this moment should not be given to the precise method of procedure.

SHOWS NO SIGNS OF FATIGUE.

General Miles Makes Fast Time on Horseback.

El Reno, Okla., July 15.—Lieutenant General Nelson A. Miles completed a horseback ride from Fort Sill, I. T., for Fort Reno, Okla., a distance of ninety miles, in nine hours and ten minutes. The first thirty-seven miles was made in record time, the distance being covered in two hours and twenty-five minutes. Upon completing the trip, General Miles showed no signs of fatigue, and forty minutes after his arrival at Fort Reno reviewed the troops stationed at that point. The ride was taken, it is said, to demonstrate that General Miles, at the age of retirement, is still a sturdy man.

LARGE INTERESTS INVOLVED.

Quasi-Public Concerns in and Around Cincinnati to Be Consolidated.

Philadelphia, July 15.—The Record says the United Gas Improvement company is about to take over a controlling interest in the Cincinnati Gas and Electric company. This deal involves $29,000,000 and is a step preliminary to the consolidation of all the quasi-public concerns in and around Cincinnati.

The deal will be followed by the transfer of the Cincinnati Traction company, the Citizens' National bank and a newly organized trust company to the same interest, if not directly to the United Gas Improvement company.

HAS A NARROW ESCAPE.

Wisconsin Man Nearly Roasted to Death in an Oven.

Marquette, Wis., July 15.—Through the accidental closing of a sheetiron door in a new cook oven, O. P. Chatfield, who was inside the oven, narrowly escaped being roasted to death. With no one to help him, Mr. Chatfield realized that he must get out immediately or he soon would be baked to a crisp. With the aid of an iron bar he managed, after a superhuman effort, to lift the door about a foot and escaped. His face and hands were badly blistered from the intense heat.

WHEN ELIHU ROOT RESIGNS.

Robert Shaw Oliver May Become Secretary of War.

Washington, July 15.—It seems to be a general understanding among officials of the war department who ought to know, that the name of Robert Shaw Oliver, who has just been appointed assistant secretary of war, will be favorably considered for secretary of war when Secretary Root retires from the cabinet.

It has been known for some time that on the completion of certain important matters which Secretary Root has in hand he intends to return to New York to resume the practice of law. Just when this might happen is and has been very indefinite. Secretary Root sails for England the last of the month to take his place as chairman of the American commission on the Alaskan boundary commission. He will continue as secretary of war during his stay abroad. The fact that he is familiar with everything pertaining to Philippine affairs, with the administration in Cuba and with the management of all military matters since the Spanish war, all of which subjects may be considered by the next congress, may cause him to continue until the close of the present administration.

Secretary Root returned to Washington late last night from Oyster Bay, where he has been in conference with the president on various department matters.

DYNAMITED HIS HOME.

Masked Cattlemen Then Warn a Sheepman to Leave the Country.

Newcastle, Wyo., July 14.—Masked cattlemen visited a sheep stockmaster near Gillette and dynamited his house, watering tank and windmill. The stockmaster was bound to a post while the work of destruction was going on and when the cattlemen departed they admonished him to leave the country.

MISS ROSE OWENS,

No. 720 Seventeenth St., WASHINGTON, D. C.

"If every suffering woman has the same experience with Wine of Cardui that I had, your medicine will be most popular. About a year ago I began to have a worn out tired feeling with lassitude, pains in the back and head which kept increasing every month. I felt that I needed something, but to get the right medicine was the trouble. I finally decided on your Wine of Cardui and only needed to take three bottles when I was fully recovered."

WHEN Miss Rose Owens, who has a responsible position in the Government service at Washington, D. C., decided to try Wine of Cardui, she made a wise choice. Over a million women have been relieved of female weakness by this same Wine of Cardui. It is not a strong medicine but may be taken every day in the year by any woman with benefit. It does not force results, but corrects derangements of the menstrual organs. It strengthens the nervous system, gives tone to the bodily functions, acts directly on the genital organs, and is the finest tonic for women known to the science of medicine.

Miss Rose Owens.

If you are a suffering woman we would say to you that Wine of Cardui seldom fails to completely cure any case of female ills. We say emphatically, it never fails to benefit. Every day hundreds of sufferers are writing to our Ladies' Advisory Department. The letters are opened by persons competent to give advice. Mrs. Jones was cured by following the advice which was freely given her by the Ladies' Advisory Department. Miss Owens was cured without advice by just buying a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui from her druggist and taking this great medicine in the privacy of her home. No doctor's examination, treatment or advice is necessary. You have read what these two cured women have written. Is this not enough to lead you to determine to be rid of suffering?

August 13, 1900, Mrs. W. H. Jones, of Cameron, Mo., writes: "I suffered terribly at monthly periods for three years. I would sometimes go for seven months with no flow at all. Now I have my health back again and am expecting to be confined in January. I cannot praise your medicine enough."

WINE of CARDUI

A million suffering women have found relief in Wine of Cardui.

Washington, July 15.—The postoffice inspectors are investigating charges made against John M. Masten, now assistant superintendent of the railway mail service and formerly chief clerk of the first assistant postmaster general's office. A man named Terry, now in the government service, has made an affidavit before the inspectors alleging that Masten, while chief clerk to the first assistant postmaster general, proposed that Terry pay him $50 down and $8 or $10 a month to secure reinstatement in a former position in Masten's bureau. Terry charges that he was originally a $600 employee in the dead letter office, that he was removed under an order of Masten and put into the city postoffice, that he protested and finally that Masten suggested his getting an outside party, a close friend of Masten and a former employee of the postal service, to help him. The affidavit alleges that Masten gave Terry assurance that if he paid the amount mentioned he could get back, that he went to Masten's house about the matter, but

Did Not Pay the Money.

Terry charges that subsequently he made an affidavit, making these charges and handed it to Masten to present to First Assistant Postmaster General Johnson and that the affidavit did not reach Johnson. According to the charges, Masten subsequently was asked by Terry for the affidavit and refused to return it and Terry thereupon placed the information before the civil service commission, who took up the matter with the president.

The federal grand jury in this city is considering several important post-office cases which are expected to prove of widespread interest. Postmaster General Payne said this afternoon that he expected there would be some important news during his absence on his trip along the coast and he expected that the grand jury would furnish some interesting developments. There is no definite information available as to the identity of the cases, but the jury has been working on them for some time.

An agreement has been reached between the postoffice department and the civil service commission regarding the transfer of employees from other departments to the postoffice department.

Discloses Irregular Transfers.

The new regulations provide that in such transfers it must be shown that the person to be transferred will be employed on work similar to that previously performed by him and has qualifications which will enable him to perform such work better than a person selected from the eligible register of the commission. The pending investigation has disclosed a number of irregular transfers.

The resignation of George A. C. Christy, who was given a leave of absence as law clerk of the department shortly after the sensational filing of the assistant attorney general's safe by Mrs. Tyner, has been under investigation at the department, but there will be no further action before Postmaster General Payne's return to the city.

Mr. Payne will leave here today and will be aboard the revenue cutter while it makes its regular cruise, which will extend as far as Boston and possibly up to the Maine coast. He expects to be away most of August.

TORNADO IN NEBRASKA.

One Person Killed and Three Others Injured.

Cosead, Neb., July 15.—A tornado passed eight miles north of here Tuesday afternoon, killing one person and injuring three others.

Samuel Henry, a farmhand, was killed, and two children of Mr. and Mrs. Griffiths, and Miss Anderson, a nurse, were injured.

The dead and injured were in the residence of Griffiths, which was completely destroyed.

The storm passed from northwest to southeast for a distance of ten miles, devastating a strip of country three miles wide and destroying almost every house and barn in its course. The loss is estimated at $100,000. The growing crops were completely destroyed in the area over which the tornado passed.

TEXTILE STRIKE CONTINUES.

Each Side Emphasizes Its Determination Not to Give In.

Philadelphia, July 15.—Both manufacturers and employees Tuesday emphasized their determination not to give way in the textile strike. Over fifty mill owners in the Ingrain carpet trade met at the Manufacturers' club in the afternoon and voted "not to grant any concessions to the strikers, while the executive committee of the Central Textile Workers' union adopted resolutions aimed against employees who have given up the fight for fifty-five hours and returned to work, and also voted to continue the strike all summer if necessary.

OFFICIAL VISIT ENDS.

American Officers and Men Enthusiastically Received in England.

Portsmouth, Eng., July 15.—With the reception given on board Rear Admiral Cotton's flagship Kearsarge Tuesday afternoon the official visit of the American squadron to England terminated. The royal yacht Victoria and Albert will leave Portsmouth harbor today and receive the salutes of the warships as she steams out. On Friday, when outside Spithead, Admiral Cotton will transfer his flag to the Chicago and proceed with the San Francisco and Machias to Lisbon, while the Kearsarge will begin her speed trial across the Atlantic.

"Our reception in England has been most cordial and enthusiastic," said Rear Admiral Cotton. "Nothing could exceed the courtesy extended to us on all sides, from the king and Prince of Wales, the officials of the government and officers of the army and navy, to the people of London and Portsmouth. I have no doubt that the result of the visit of the American squadron will prove beneficial in the extreme and that it will tend to strengthen the cordial relations which have long existed between the two countries."

Admiral Cotton and the other American officers gave Captain Hemphill all the honors for the part played by the Kearsarge, whose presence contributed in such a remarkable degree to the success of the visit. "We have been killed with kindness," said Captain Hemphill.

TEAMSTERS REFUSE TO STRIKE.

So Chicago Freight Handlers Decide to Return to Work.

Chicago, July 15.—Freight handlers at all the railway warehouses in the city will be ordered today by President T. J. Curran to handle all the freight that is presented at their station, no matter where it comes from. Twenty-two men discharged by the Chicago Terminal Transfer Railroad company for refusing to handle freight from the Kellogg Switchboard and Supply company Saturday will return to the Western avenue freight house and apply for their positions with the understanding that they will handle all kinds of freight.

The action of President Curran and the executive board followed the meeting of the teamsters' joint council last night. President Curran was informed by the council that the teamsters would not join in a sympathetic strike.

IOWA COAL OPERATORS MEET.

Formulate a Series of Charges Against Their Miners.

Des Moines, Ia., July 15.—Sixty Iowa coal operators met in secret session here Tuesday and formulated a series of charges against local unions of the United Mine Workers which will be submitted to the state executive board of that organization for action. If the executive board does not take action, it is intimated the operators will consider their contract with the mine workers at an end. The agreement provides that grievances of miners shall be submitted to an arbitration board and that pending a decision by the board the miners shall remain at work. The operators claim that in violations of this contract there have been numerous small strikes and stoppages of work which have proven costly to the operators involved.

CAUSES SATISFACTION.

Crimes Act Revoked in Certain Sections of Ireland.

Dublin, July 15.—A proclamation was published Tuesday in the Dublin Gazette, revoking the summary jurisdiction powers of the magistrates in those districts of Ireland which still remain under the crimes act.

The revoking of the crimes act, coming on the eve of King Edward's visit to Ireland, gives great satisfaction. Both here and in Belfast elaborate preparations are being made to decorate and illuminate the cities. The king is certain to have a most enthusiastic welcome and general regret is expressed that the question of presenting an address to his majesty should have been forced to a division in the Dublin corporation, which, in spite of the decision arrived at, is giving the citizens every facility for the decoration of the streets.

THIRTEEN GIRLS BADLY HURT.

Slid Down Imitation Cascade Faster Than Usual.

Paris, July 15.—A serious accident occurred last night at the Folies Magiques theater, in the Champs Elysees. In the final scene of the piece being given at the theater there is an imitation of a cascade, down which apparently glide a number of girls, who are really attached by the waist to a moving sheet. Last night the cord broke and the sheet came down to the stage with a rush. Thirteen of the girls were badly hurt and eight were taken to the hospital.

Blown Into Fragments.

New York, July 15.—Donati Vanetti, watchman for a Williams bridge contractor, was blown into fragments by an explosion of dynamite last night. He was collecting tools and threw them into a big box supposed to contain dynamite.

Show a Large Surplus.

New York, July 15.—The Northern Securities roads show a combined surplus for the year ending June 30 of over $41,000,000, or 19 per cent on the Northern Securities stock.

HOLD A CONFERENCE

CHIEF EXCUTIVE AND PROMINENT JEWS DISCUSS PETITION TO THE CZAR.

MAY NOT BE NECESSARY

ACTION OF RUSSIAN GOVERNMENT MAY END USEFULNESS OF MEMORIAL.

Oyster Bay, L. I., July 15.—An important conference was held at Sagamore Hill during the day between the president and representative Jewish citizens from the Society of B'Nai B'Rith regarding the petition to the Russian government on the Kishineff outrages. Besides the president the parties to the conference were Simon S. Wolf of Washington, Oscar S. Straus and Leon Levi of New York.

The administration has been embarrassed by the delay of the representatives of the B'Nai B'Rith society in presenting the petition. A draft of the document was handed to President Roosevelt weeks ago by Mr. Wolf, but it was decided after some consideration to modify the text of the petition before presenting it formally to this government for transmittal to Russia. Time was desired, too, to obtain to the petition the signatures of representative citizens of the United States of all religious faiths. As a result the document was not placed in the hands of the president until now. The result of the conference at Sagamore Hill has not been disclosed yet, but a strong intimation is given that to the Russian government. The desire of both the president and Secretary Hay is that the Kishineff incident should be closed as soon as possible, as further delay in its consideration might prove embarrassing to this government in other diplomatic negotiations with Russia. Inasmuch as the Russian government has indicated by the adoption of severe measures a genuine disposition to punish adequately the perpetrators of the Kishineff murders and in addition those who instigated them it is a problem for the president and Secretary Hay to solve whether representations concerning the incident now are either desirable or necessary.

It is suggested that the whole matter may be resolved into a brief statement through diplomatic channels to the Russian foreign office that such a petition is in the hands of the United States, thus leaving it to Russia to say whether it would or would not receive the document if it were presented. It would close the incident without subjecting United States relations with Russia to a strain and it is regarded, would be quite as effective as the actual presentation of the petition.

Conference Was Satisfactory.

Messrs. Wolf, Levi and Straus concluded their conference with the president and left for New York in the afternoon. Prior to their departure they announced that, while their conference had been eminently satisfactory, they were not in a position at this time to discuss the result of the interview. The petition in its modified form was presented to the president, but it is understood that signatures to it are yet being added and probably will continue to be added for several days. While many citizens of Jewish faith have signed the petition, a majority of the signatures are those of persons of other religious beliefs. It is learned that a statement soon will be made by the state department in Washington which will disclose the steps taken and to be taken by this government, but there are reasons why publicity at this moment should not be given to the precise method of procedure.

SHOWS NO SIGNS OF FATIGUE.

General Miles Makes Fast Time on Horseback.

El Reno, Okla., July 15.—Lieutenant General Nelson A. Miles completed a horseback ride from Fort Sill, I. T., for Fort Reno, Okla., a distance of ninety miles, in nine hours and ten minutes. The first thirty-seven miles was made in record time, the distance being covered in two hours and twenty-five minutes. Upon completing the trip, General Miles showed no signs of fatigue, and forty minutes after his arrival at Fort Reno reviewed the troops stationed at that point. The ride was taken, it is said, to demonstrate that General Miles, at the age of retirement, is still a sturdy man.

LARGE INTERESTS INVOLVED.

Quasi-Public Concerns in and Around Cincinnati to Be Consolidated.

Philadelphia, July 15.—The Record says the United Gas Improvement company is about to take over a controlling interest in the Cincinnati Gas and Electric company. This deal involves $29,000,000 and is a step preliminary to the consolidation of all the quasi-public concerns in and around Cincinnati.

The deal will be followed by the transfer of the Cincinnati Traction company, the Citizens' National bank and a newly organized trust company to the same interest, if not directly to the United Gas Improvement company.

HAS A NARROW ESCAPE.

Wisconsin Man Nearly Roasted to Death in an Oven.

Marinette, Wis., July 15.—Through the accidental closing of a sheetiron door in a new coke oven, O. P. Chatfield, who was inside the oven, narrowly escaped being roasted to death. With no one to help him, Mr. Chatfield realized that he must get out immediately or he soon would be baked to a crisp. With the aid of an iron bar he managed, after a superhuman effort, to lift the door about a foot and escaped. His face and hands were badly blistered from the intense heat.

WHEN ELIHU ROOT RESIGNS.

Robert Shaw Oliver May Become Secretary of War.

Washington, July 15.—It seems to be a general understanding among officials of the war department, who ought to know, that the name of Robert Shaw Oliver, who has just been appointed assistant secretary of war, will be favorably considered for secretary of war when Secretary Root retires from the cabinet.

It has been known for some time that on the completion of certain important matters which Secretary Root has in hand he intends to return to New York to resume the practice of law. Just when this might happen is and has been very indefinite. Secretary Root sails for England the last of the month to take his place as chairman of the American commission on the Alaskan boundary commission. He will continue as secretary of war during his stay abroad. The fact that he is familiar with everything pertaining to Philippine affairs, with the administration in Cuba and with the management of all military matters since the Spanish war, all of which subjects may be considered by the next congress, may cause him to continue until the close of the present administration.

Secretary Root returned to Washington late last night from Oyster Bay, where he has been in conference with the president on various department matters.

DYNAMITED HIS HOME.

Masked Cattlemen Then Warn a Sheepman to Leave the Country.

Newcastle, Wyo., July 14.—Masked cattlemen visited a sheep flockmaster near Gillette and dynamited his house, watering tank and windmill. The flockmaster was bound to a post while the work of destruction was going on and when the cattlemen departed they admonished him to leave the country.

MISS ROSE OWENS,

No. 720 Seventeenth St., WASHINGTON, D. C.

"If every suffering woman has the same experience with Wine of Cardui that I had, your medicine will be most popular. About a year ago I began to have a worn out tired feeling with lassitude, pains in the back and head which kept increasing every month. I felt that I needed something, but to get the right medicine was the trouble. I finally decided on your Wine of Cardui and only needed to take three bottles when I was fully recovered."

WHEN Miss Rose Owens, who has a responsible position in the Government service at Washington, D. C., decided to try Wine of Cardui, she made a wise choice. Over a million women have been relieved of female weakness by this same Wine of Cardui. It is not a strong medicine but may be taken every day in the year by any woman with benefit. It does not force results, but corrects derangements of the menstrual organs. It strengthens the nervous system, gives tone to the bodily functions, acts directly on the genital organs, and is the finest tonic for women known to the science of medicine.

Miss Rose Owens.

If you are a suffering woman you would say to you that Wine of Cardui seldom fails to completely cure any case of female ills. We say emphatically, it never fails to benefit. Every day hundreds of sufferers are writing to our Ladies' Advisory Department. The letters are opened by persons competent to give advice. Mrs. Jones was cured by following the advice which was freely given by the Ladies' Advisory Department. Miss Owens was cured without advice by just buying a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui from her druggist and taking this great medicine in the privacy of her home. No doctor's examination, treatment or advice is necessary. You have read what these two cured women have written. Is this not enough to lead you to determine to be rid of suffering?

August 13, 1900. Mrs. W. H. Jones, of Cameron, Mo., writes: "I suffered terribly at monthly periods for three years. I would sometimes go for seven months with no flow at all. Now I have my health back again and am expecting to be confined in January. I cannot praise your medicine enough."

BEYOND DOUBT

These Facts Must Interest Every Brainerd Reader.

The statement which follows tells the experience of a Brainerd resident. Incredulity cannot long exist about this testimony because it can be easily investigated.

BASE BALL NUBS

The regular Brainerd team now has two members of last year's Gennymedes' of Minneapolis, in the persons of Deschene and Ryan. The game on Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock with the Little Falls team ought to be a good one.

Dennie Sullivan, who played here last year and who the first part of the season was farmed out to Winnipeg in the Northern league, is back with Minneapolis again and is doing some great stick work. If he can hold his own in this regard his old friends will vouch for his fast work in the field and on bases.

Charlie Bemis, pitching with the Winnipeg team this year in the Northern league, has been doing some good work on the rubber, but he has played unlucky in many respects. He is credited with pitching as good ball as any of the staff, but his support has usually been of the ragged sort.

A NEW HOMESTEAD.

A Brotherhood of American Yeoman Has Been Organized in East Brainerd.

The Brotherhood of American Yeomen have organized a homestead in northeast Brainerd to be known as "Pleasant Grove Homestead No. 1059." The organization is launched with a large charter membership, and more are constantly coming into the order. The people out there are evidently trying to get their share of the good things. It is a good move and should receive a generous support from the people.

It is already understood among the members that they will erect a Yeoman hall at an early date, but at present they are very well accommodated as they have the entire upstairs of Bert Sabin's large new house. Regular meetings will be held on the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month. Several meetings have already been held and last night Deputies Stickney and Gaffney, assisted by a number of members from Brainerd Homestead installed the following officers, who will fill the chairs for the remainder of the term, or until the regular election:

Foreman—W. E. Palmer.
Master of Ceremonies—O. J. Dane.
Correspondent—F. M. Cook.
Physician—Mary E. Palmer.
Overseer—Manson E. Baker.

A Quaint Old Will.

"My hobby is the collection of strange wills," said a retired sea captain. "I have gathered together copies of over fifty odd testaments, and fine reading some of them are. One, over 300 years old, bequeaths—what do you think? Why, it bequeaths its maker's soul to God. This is the way it reads:

"In Dei nomine, Amen; the yere of our Lord 1541, the XXXth day of May, I, Robert Petigrew, hole of mynd and mem'ry, make my testament and last will, yn forme and manner following: First, I bequeeth my sowle to Almighty God, and my body to be buryd yn the churchyard of North Cadbery. I bequeeth to my sonne Richard a cove, a calff, the second best grass panne, 11 platters, 11 dysshyss of pewter, and an akar of wheat, an akar of drage, and an akar of meadow. To my daughter Alys, a cove. To my sonne Thomas, my old oxe. The residew of my goods, not bequeethed, I give to Mawde, my Wyffe."—Philadelphia Record.

Coral of Our Own Coast.

It is a common notion that corals grow only in tropical and subtropical waters and that no coral reefs are to be found along our own familiar coasts. As a matter of fact, coral formations stretch all along the Atlantic coast of the United States, although the reefs do not rise so high that they project from the water. BEYOND DOUBT
These Facts Must Interest Every Brainerd Reader.
The statement which follows tells the experience of a Brainerd resident. Incredulity cannot long exist about this testimony because it can be easily investigated.
A. E. Losey, of the firm of Losey & Dean, undertakers and embalmers, on Front street, says: "It was necessary for me to employ some medicine for my kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills I procured at a drug store, used them and I believe they helped me. I take pleasure in recommending them for backache, etc."
Sold for 50 cents, at H. P. Dunn & Co., and all druggists. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.

BASE BALL NUBS
The regular Brainerd team now has two members of last year's Gennymedes of Minneapolis, in the persons of Deschene and Ryan. The game on Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock with the Little Falls team ought to be a good one.
Dennie Sullivan, who played here last year and who the first part of the season was farmed out to Winnipeg in the Northern league, is back with Minneapolis again and is doing some great stick work. If he can hold his own in this regard his old friends will vouch for his fast work in the field and on bases.
Charlie Bemis, pitching with the Winnipeg team this year in the Northern league, has been doing some good work on the rubber, but he has played unlucky in many respects. He is credited with pitching as good ball as any of the staff, but his support has usually been of the ragged sort.

A NEW HOMESTEAD.
A Brotherhood of American Yeoman Has Been Organized in East Brainerd.
The Brotherhood of American Yeomen have organized a homestead in northeast Brainerd to be known as "Pleasant Grove Homestead No. 1059." The organization is launched with a large charter membership, and more are constantly coming into the order. The people out there are evidently trying to get their share of the good things. It is a good move and should receive a generous support from the people.
It is already understood among the members that they will erect a Yeoman hall at an early date, but at present they are very well accommodated as they have the entire upstairs of Bert Sabin's large new house. Regular meetings will be held on the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month. Several meetings have already been held and last night Deputies Stickney and Gaffney, assisted by a number of members from Brainerd Homestead installed the following officers who will fill the chairs for the remainder of the term, or until the regular election:

A Quaint Old Will.
"My hobby is the collection of strange wills," said a retired sea captain. "I have gathered together copies of over fifty odd testaments, and fine reading some of them are. One, over 300 years old, bequeaths—what do you think? Why, it bequeaths its maker's soul to God. This is the way it reads: "In Dei nomine, Amen; the yere of our Lord 1541, the XXXth day of May, I, Robert Pettigrew, hole of mynd and mem'ry, make my testament and last will, yn forme and manner following: First, I bequeth my sowle to Almighty God, and my body to be buryd yn the churchyard of North Cadbery. I bequeth to my sonne Richard a cowe, a calff, the second best grass panne, 11 platters, 11 dysshys of pewter, and an akar of wheat, an akar of drage, and an akar of meadow. To my daughter Alys, a cowe. To my sonne Thomas, my old oxe. The residew of my goods, not bequethed, I give to Mayde, my Wyffe."—Philadelphia Record.

HIS HEART RETURNS TO HIS FIRST LOVE

A Gentleman From Connecticut Comes to Brainerd in Quest of Former Love.

HAS NOT SEEN HER FOR YEARS.

He Went to War and the Girl's Family Moved to Minnesota to Live

Hugh Jenkins, a man of nearly sixty, of pleasing address, of debonaire disposition, slightly bent by the weight of years and with a head of hair that is snowy white, has been in the city for several days and to the ordinary pedestrian there has been nothing out of the ordinary in the gentleman's actions while he has been here, but in his heart there is a romance that borders on the pathetic, and he alone, away from friends and home, can best describe his feelings at this time. His mission here is full of romance and interesting detail and the realizing sense that he will soon succeed in his search has transformed him into a state of almost boyish fancies.

The old gentleman is looking for his long lost love, a love of over forty summers ago in the old state of Connecticut. In those days he made love, wooed and won the heart and hand of a Jennie G. Summerville, and the day had been set for the nuptial event, the crowning event of the young lover's life, but the cruel war broke out and like many another young American lad Jenkins shouldered his musket and went to fight for his flag. For a year or two the pair kept up a correspondence, but finally the young ladies' parents moved to the state of Minnesota, and locating at some remote point from the railroad where the facilities for getting mail were not the best, the letters between the lovers were not forthcoming, but the young gallant was determined on returning to his home after the war to locate his fiancée. All efforts in this direction proved futile, and finally he settled down to build a fortune, hoping that one day some trace of the girl might be found. She had been informed in her far off western home that her lover had been killed.

It was a lost hope for no word ever came and passing from young manhood to middle life, and from middle life to old age his days were full of pining, until last winter by some accident he met a gentleman in a small town in Connecticut called Westport, who during the course of conversation mentioned the name Summerville and by a series of questions he finally decided that he had at last found some trace of his former love. He had married but his wife is dead, and he felt that perhaps his former love had married also, but notwithstanding there was a longing to see her and he came west. It was learned that the very woman lived for a long time at Chatfield this state and had married a man by the name of Eau Claire, but they had moved from there and for a time Jenkins had some difficulty in finding any trace of the lady. Finally he learned that her husband was dead and that she had moved to Brainerd and he came here. He found that the lady had lived here but a short time and had taken in washing for a living and that a month or so ago she had gone to a small town in Clay county. He secured the information necessary and left on this afternoon's train for the west, determined to marry her and take her back home with him, there to live in peace through the declining years of their lives. He has prospered in this world's goods and he is now willing to share with his first love and make up in happiness all that has been lost in these many years of separation. This is a glowing example of the "undying love."

BIG EVENT FOR BRAINERD.

Eagles Carnival Now the Interesting Topic of Discussion Among People of the City.

Mr. Brainerd, of the Patterson & Brainerd Carnival company, is in the city today making arrangements for the big Eagles' Mid-Summer Carnival to be held in this city from July 20 to 25. It has not been decided definitely what streets will be used for the covers, but undoubtedly they will be the ones most centrally located. From all that can be learned about this great carnival company they are having great success everywhere. Regarding one of the many features of the big attraction, the Stadium, the Iowa, Kan., Independent has the following to say:

"The Stadium easily ranks at the top. Feats of juggling and bicycle riding and tumbling are performed there which would be a credit to any show on earth. You want to see it if you visit the grounds. The performance closes with two bicyclists riding like the wind about the inside slopes of a basket shaped almost like a tub. They ride in opposite directions, like mad, swinging to the upper edge and then to the bottom and passing each other on the way."

Your shoes and your hat are a large factor in determining your general appearance. Why not improve it by wearing a McKibben hat and a pair of Dr. A. Reed's cushion sole shoes.

A Great Show.

The Omaha Bee said: "We have been reading lately many complimentary comments on the greatly increased size and unquestioned merit of the newly equipped great Sells & Downs shows, now touring the west, but were agreeably surprised today, first by the magnitude of the show as a whole, as it came in sections on its elegantly constructed trains, and again by its stupendous, clean and novel parade. A show never presented a more gorgeous pageant. We visited the ground on a business errand, and again met a surprise. The show is absolutely new throughout and covers not only the entire show lot, but all the streets surrounding them. The tents at the afternoon performance were packed with visitors, and the circus program, for novelty, great features, comedy and real attractiveness, is far superior to anything offered to an Omaha audience for many years, and we have had all of the so-called big shows."

The great Sells & Downs shows will exhibit in Brainerd on July 16.

HIS HEART RETURNS TO HIS FIRST LOVE

A Gentleman From Connecticut
Comes to Brainerd in Quest of Former Love.

HAS NOT SEEN HER FOR YEARS.

He Went to War and the Girl's Family Moved to Minnesota to Live

Hugh Jenkins, a man of nearly sixty,
of pleasing address, of debonair disposition, slightly bent by the weight of years and with a head of hair that is snowy white, has been in the city for several days and to the ordinary pedestrian there has been nothing out of the ordinary in the gentleman's actions while he has been here, but in his heart there is a romance that borders on the pathetic, and he alone, away from friends and home, can best describe his feelings at this time. His mission here is full of romance and interesting detail and the realizing sense that he will soon succeed in his search has transformed him into a state of almost boyish fancies.

The old gentleman is looking for his long lost love, a love of over forty summers ago in the old state of Connecticut. In those days he made love, wooed and won the heart and hand of a Jennie G. Summerfield, and the day had been set for the nuptial event, the crowning event of the young lover's life, but the cruel war broke out and like many another young American lad Jenkins shouldered his musket and went to fight for his flag. For a year or two the pair kept up a correspondence, but finally the young ladies' parents moved to the state of Minnesota, and locating at some remote point from the railroad where the facilities for getting mail were not the best, the letters between the lovers were not forthcoming, but the young gallant was determined on returning to his home after the war to locate his fiancee. All efforts in this direction proved futile, and finally he settled down to build a fortune, hoping that one day some trace of the girl might be found. She had been informed in her far off western home that her lover had been killed.

It was a lost hope for no word ever came and passing from young manhood to middle life, and from middle life to old age his days were full of pining, until last winter by some accident he met a gentleman in a small town in Connecticut called Westport, who during the course of conversation mentioned the name Summerfield and by a series of questions he finally decided that he had at last found some trace of his former love. He had married but his wife is dead, and he felt that perhaps his former love had married also, but notwithstanding there was a longing to see her and he came west. It was learned that the very woman lived for a long time at Chatfield this state and had married a man by the name of Eau-Claire, but they had moved from there and for a time Jenkins had some difficulty in finding any trace of the lady.
Finally he learned that her husband was dead and that she had moved to Brainerd and he came here. He found that the lady had lived here but a short time and had taken in washing for a living and that a month or so ago she had gone to a small town in Clay county.
He secured the information necessary and left on this afternoon's train for the west, determined to marry her and take her back home with him, there to live in peace through the declining years of their lives. He has prospered in this world's goods and he is now willing to share with his first love and make up in happiness all that has been lost in these many years of separation. This is a glowing example of the "undying love."

REMINISCENCES OF THE GENIAL PONTIFF

Evidences of Leo XIII.'s Kindness, Wit and Humor.

A QUICK READER OF CHARACTER.

An Incident of His Generosity Which
Secured Him a Trustworthy Servant—Witty Reply to a Woman
Visitor—Study's Ruinous Effect on
His Marksmanship as a Hunter.
His Only Thrashing.

A well known Catholic once told a story of the kindness and discerning power of Pope Leo XIII., says the
Rome correspondent of the Pall Mall
Gazette.

"Our pope," said he, "reads character
at a glance and is rarely deceived. One evening, when nuncio at Brussels, he
was entering his carriage to go to dinner at the house of Count de Balliet
when just as his foot was on the carriage step a workman, wretchedly
dressed, rushed forward, insulted him
and attacked him personally. His servants, ready in his defense, seized the aggressor and proceeded to make things hot for him, but the pope, then simple Mgr. Pecci, stopped them and,
calmly and kindly addressing the man,
said:

"My friend, I bear you no malice for
what you have done. Are you in need?
Come to see me some other time," and
he gave a franc piece slip into his hand.
Needless to say, the workman, after
much encouragement, went to see him,
and went so often that the nuncio
eventually took him into his service as a domestic, and Leo XIII., who retained a benevolent recollection of him,
used to recount that he never had a servant more respectful and more to
be trusted."

A story which typifies the two dominant characteristics of the pope, his homeliness and his humor, is as follows, says a writer in the London Tit-Bits: One day when he was beset by pilgrims begging for some memorial of him, something which his hands had touched, an old lady said to him, "Holy father, give me one of your stockings; it will cure my bad leg."
"With pleasure, madam," the pontiff replied, "but I may as well tell you it has never cured mine."

Right Rev. Camillus Paul Maes, bishop of Covington, O., who made his ad limina visit to Rome in May, 1902, speaking of the characteristics of the pope, said in the Cincinnati Enquirer:

"A very singular trait of Leo XIII.
is his great store of good humor and
wit. I have known no man more responsive to a pleasant joke or more keen and quick in his reply. I recall the case of a certain French bishop who visited the pope several years ago, and upon leaving began to weep. The holy father asked the reason of his distress, and the prelate replied that he could not control himself at the thought that he would never see him again. The pope answered: 'Why will you not see me again? You are still a young man.' The bishop, who was about sixty, looked up at this reply, and, seeing the smile of keen delight on the holy father's face, took his farewell with conflicting emotions."
"In March, 1902, a certain French
lady, who regularly visits the pope every two years, upon leaving inquired whether she should come again, and received the answer, 'Once more and then—and he pointed upward.'"

The installation of the electric light in the Vatican was inaugurated not long ago. It is on a very extensive scale, comprising 6,000 lamps of sixteen candle power, says the Pall Mall Gazette. The pope said recently, in referring to this noteworthy event in the history of the apostolic palace, "People will no longer be able to reproach the Vatican with being the enemy of light."

Father Salvagni, the only surviving schoolmate of the pope in Carpineto, Italy, while recalling incidents of the pope's boyhood days, spoke thus, according to the Cincinnati Commercial Tribune:

"Ser Nino Leo was the most courageous mountain climber I ever saw, and we have long been famous for our skill in mountaineering in this part of the country. And at one time he was the best shot in these mountains.
So great was his skill with the rifle that he disdained to shoot a bird except on the wing. But study ruined his marksmanship. It was a great pity. I was ashamed of him the last time he visited us, in September, 1887. With other hunters, I had gone out on the road near Monteliano to meet him.
He recognized me in the throng and began to tell me his story. I handed him the weapon to him. He aimed at a bird and hit a tree. It cut me to the heart. He, the best marksman in the mountains, to miss an easy shot! He never used a gun again. I suppose he felt the disgrace too keenly. He left us on Nov. 2 of that same year, never to return."

Only once was the holy father ever beaten. That was when he was twelve years old. He and his brother, who was a year older, were so much excited when their mother, the Countess Anna, was pursued to her very door by brigands that they went forth to have a good view of the robbers. In those days the banditti were picturesque looking creatures, wearing velvet coats and trousers, with silver buttons, red shirts and handkerchiefs and carrying many knives and pistols. Their father rescued the youngsters just in time, and then he thrashed them with much vigor.

SHOOT HIS WIFE TO DEATH.

Chicago Man Then Ends His Own Life
With a Bullet.

Chicago, July 15.—Mrs. Joseph Hor-warth was shot and killed by her husband yesterday morning. Police officers hearing the shot, rushed into the house and saw Horwarth standing over the body of his dead wife. Before they could prevent him he pointed the revolver at his mouth and discharged it, the bullet lodging in the base of the brain. He was Mrs. Horwarth's fifth husband.

Horwarth was jealous of his wife and this led to a separation.
He threatened to take her life and she appealed to the police for protection on hearing that he had purchased a revolver. The hearing was set for yesterday, despite the fact that the woman frantically declared she would be killed before then.

REMINISCENCES OF THE GENIAL PONTIFF

Evidences of Leo XIII's Kind-
ness, Wit and Humor.

A QUICK READER OF CHARACTER.

An Incident of His Generosity Which
Secured Him a Trustworthy Serv-
ant—Witty Reply to a Woman
Visitor—Study's Ruinous Effect on
His Marksmanship as a Hunter.
His Only Thrashing.

A well known Catholic once told a
story of the kindness and discerning
power of Pope Leo XIII., says the
Rome correspondent of the Pall Mall
Gazette.

"Our pope," said he, "reads character
at a glance and is rarely deceived. One evening, when nuncio at Brussels, he
was entering his carriage to go to dinner at the house of Count de Ballet
when just as his foot was on the carriage step a workman, wretchedly
dressed, rushed forward, insulted him
and attacked him personally. His servants, ready in his defense, seized the
aggressor and proceeded to make things hot for him, but the pope, then
simple Mgr. Pecci, stopped them and,
calmly and kindly addressing the man,
said:

"My friend, I bear you no malice for
what you have done. Are you in need?
Come to see me some other time," and
let a five franc piece slip into his hand.
Needless to say, the workman, after
much encouragement, went to see him,
and went so often that the nuncio
eventually took him into his service as
a domestic, and Leo XIII., who retained a benevolent recollection of him,
used to recount that he never had a
servant more respectful and more to
be trusted."

A story which typifies the two dominant characteristics of the pope, his
homeliness and his humor, is as fol-

"In March, 1902, a certain French
